Washington University will play the University of Kansas at the World's Fair Stadium this afternoon. The local eleven will probably be opposed by a strong and fast bunch, but are prepared for a hard battle.

Washington had its final workout at League Park yesterday afternoon, and went through signal work, practicing runting and catching the ball.

Coach Boynton, assisted by St. Clair Shaw, did not work the team very hard, but what work was done was completed in a burry, and the coach says that the team will be able to show what it can do to-day.

Kansus comes with a good standing, but it is said that most of the players have broken training in the last week as a result of no gamer, and that they have had has an extended that the team was improving overy day. "I think that I have the fastest set of back-field players in the league, and when the line is drilled up a little more I am sure we will be able to give any of the interacholastic teams a run for their money," seld the coach.

The weights of the teams will probably give St. Louis a night advantage. Coach McLean of the Tigers has sacrinced many heavy players for lighter but fister material, and Posier, the St. Louis boy, in the line, is what holds up the Missouri team in weight.

The special excursion going to Columbia this morning over the Wabash will probably carry 30 students of the local university, together with the followers of the team.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Columbia, Mo., Nov. 11.-The Missouri Tigers are in bad form, and little confidence is expressed in their chance of winning the game with St. Louis Uni-versity to-morrow.

Currie, who made good at center early in the season, is still laid up with a broken leg, and Moorehouse, the substitute, is passing the ball in anything but a satisfactory manner. His failure in this regard was partly responsible for the poor showing of Missouri against Washington.
Nichols, half back, is also in the hos-

New York, Nov. 11.-D. A. age, but the latter has asked for the return match of to-night, and expects to reverse the verdict.

Cy. Flynn is under the care of Mal Doyle, and is making his first local appearance. He is rather tall for his weight, and this has caused some adverse comment among those who have seen him stripped.

His work with the gloves has been such, however, that no criticism of the sort has arisen after one of his workouts has been witnessed.

Kinney is a strong, hard-hitting youngster, with ability to take a world of punishment. He will probably be favorite in the main event to-night. Flynn is hopeful of making such a showing that he will create a local reputation for himself, and the bout should prove of interest.

GENERAL RACING NOTES.

E. R. Thomas intends to Enter the Breeding Business.

About the best horse developed in the East in the fag end of the season is James R. Keene's fast 3-year-old celt, Israelite, by Isidor-Starlight. This colt, for the last eighteen months, has worked very fast in his private trials, and Mr. Keene, knowing what a great sprinter his sire was, held on to him, and has at Keene, knowing what a great sprinter his sire was, held on to him, and has at last been rewarded by seeing him beat one of the best fields that have been sent to the post in the East for the last month. His banner performance was in the Aqueduct Handicap at a mile and one-sixteenth, on the opening day. The field was composed of such good ones as Dolly Spanker, Gunfare, Agile and First Masson, and he led them from start to finish, winning easily by two lengths from Dolly Spanker and Agile in 145 2-5, track-record time. He is a very speedy colt, and should develop into one of the best horses on the turf next year.

On account of wishing to race horses of his own breeding. E. R. Thomas, owner of one of the best strings raced in the East, this year, will sell all of his fine stable but Hermis, winner of this year's suburban, and Stalwart, the best 3-year-old colt of the season. His reason for keeping Hermis is because he wants to breed the son of Hermence-Katy of the West, and be keeps Stalwart hecause he developed foot trouble at Morris Park and knows that he would not bring anything like what he is worth.

Included in the lot of seventeen which will be offered for sale Lady Amelia and Reliable is the great weight-carrying sprinter which he bought from Johnny Ryan.
